Joshua Sienkiewicz

Software developer bringing proficiency in modern full-stack web application design and development. Using mobile-first development practices, I deliver exceptional user experiences and accessibility. Further, I employ remarkable communication skills to bridge gaps between technical and non-technical stakeholders to ensure business needs are met effectively and efficiently. I approach each opportunity with a growth mindset and am always eager to take on any challenge.

Contact Information

joshua.sienk@gmail.com

(208) 392-8303

Boise, Idaho 83702
United States

https://jdotaster.github.io

Employment History

Freelance - Software Developer

October 2021 - Present

Freelance web development for individuals and small businesses

Advanced Health Services - Software Developer

February 2023 - February 2024

Led design and implementation of REST APIs to meet business needs, including authentication and authorization service platforms

Developed comprehensive API test plans to ensure end-to-end software quality

Employed modern Agile development processes and architectural paradigms to maximize software agility and scalability

Adhered to HIPAA standards to ensure application data security

Intel Corporation - Integration Engineering Technician

July 2018 - October 2021

Ensured semiconductor manufacturing process quality through established yield loss analysis processes and troubleshooting

Communicated across multiple technical manufacturing teams to ensure end-to-end semiconductor manufacturing quality

EDUCATION

Portland State University — B.S. Mathematics

June 2018 - GPA 3.7

Skills

Javascript

C#

SQL

HTML

CSS

Node.js

React

.NET Core

Docker

Visual Studio

Git/Github